

What can Intermediates do?

- participate in simple direct conversations
- ask and answer questions
- handle basic uncomplicated communication needed in daily life (survival language)
- “create” with the language by combining language to express their own thoughts
- use discrete sentences and strings of sentences; can use sentence connectors

